

Books can be obtained from websites such as Amazon.com. Check with school and local libraries to access texts and free digital borrowing.

Make an informed decision when making your selection. Avoid choosing a book that you have already read for a past school assignment.

Option 1 List

by Fyodor Dostoevsky

by John Steinbeck

by Ralph Ellison

by George Eliot (pen name of Mary Ann Evans)

by Herman Melville

by Gabriel García Márquez

Option 1 Writing Component

On Google Docs or in a reader's notebook, keep track of your thoughts, ideas, responses, comments, and analyses of the books as you read them. (one side of a handwritten page is considered one page). DO NOT PLAGIARIZE!

Read carefully, paying attention not only to what the story is about, but also how the story is told. When you return to school in September, you will be asked to do assignments based on your book.

Submit to Google Classroom before class on the first day of school.

Option 2List

by Tonyly

by Mark Twain

